During everyday activities, our educators notice what helps your child participate, try thoughtful support and review the response.

WHAT YOUR SNAPSHOT COULD LOOK LIKE

ILLUSTRATIVE ONLY | FICTIONAL CHILD & VISIT

Example child: Alex | One afternoon

A strength

Alex explained a maths answer aloud.

A moment we supported

Alex had not started the written question.

What we tried

The educator modelled the first step.

What happened next

Alex began the next question with one reminder.

What we would explore next

Whether the same support helps in another task.

Format example only; each child's observations will differ. A short visit does not establish lasting progress or provide a clinical assessment.

Included: a brief private handover and a reviewed TAIP Learning & Support Snapshot within two working days of your final visit.

Book one afternoon or several. No ongoing enrolment required. Two-child rate: book together for the same afternoon; friends quote the referral name.
